Newsletter #11

Tuesday 18th April

TERM 1 BREAK

6 Days to go for the touring squad. Our

1st XV rugby team will be departing our shores on Monday 24th April for Oahu, Hawaii. The team will be busy this coming week with final preparations for the Pacific Cup tournament.

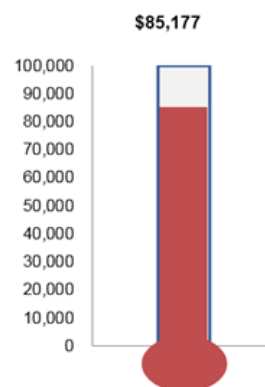

A three day camp from Tuesday—Thursday takes place this week, culminating in a rugby match between the 1st XV and an invitational team on Thursday 20 April at 2.00pm. All sponsors, supporters, families and friends are invited to come along.

Food Day & Raffle

With our target of $100,000.00 in sight we look to round off the week with a food day and the drawing of our major raffle (under Police supervision).

Both of these events will be held on Wednesday 19 April at Te-Atukura grounds to support the touring squad.

School Start Back Dates For Term Two

After the two week break—Term 2 will resume on Monday 1st May 8.20am for all students.

Our Tereora College website has a new look to it. For the latest up to date information please check out our site www.tereora.edu.ck.

School Continues for Teachers

A number of teachers are taking up the opportunity to re-group during the holiday period and spend some quality time together in preparation for new learning.

The English faculty are spending a couple of days together and re-writing /contextualising a number of assessment tasks.

This supports our theme for professional learning for teachers in 2017.
